Our Story...

New Hope Funeral Home had its initial groundbreaking in 2001 and opened for business in 2002 in Sunnyvale, Texas. The name New Hope was chosen to both honor the history of the area, and to signify the optimistic beginning of a new journey or circumstances in one's life.

Historically, the Town of Sunnyvale has its roots from the settlement days of Texas. When Texas became a part of the United States in 1845, homesteaders settled in the hamlet of Long Creek. As more people arrived, the hamlets of Tripp, Hatterville and New Hope sprung up nearby. In 1885 the hamlet of New Hope became the center of rural commerce in the area when the first store in the area opened there. It eventually became the most prosperous of the four hamlets as it soon had many shops and stores and even a newspaper, The New Hope News. This all ended in 1921 when a large storm blew through the town. Then, until the early 1950's, the remaining town of New Hope remained stagnant with no new developments until 1953 when the four hamlets merged together to form the town of Sunnyvale.

The idea for building a funeral home and opening New Hope was originally established in August 1998 by Bill and Steve Ewing, along with Jay Vandiver and Cecil Mackey with a land purchase of acreage off of Highway 80 east and Collins Road exit. A beautiful 12,000 sq. ft. full-service funeral facility was built to serve not only Sunnyvale, Mesquite, Forney, Garland, Terrell, Rowlett, Rockwell, Balch Springs, Seagoville, Wylie, Sachse, and Lancaster, but the surrounding counties of Dallas, Kaufman and Rockwell. In 2004, New Hope Funeral Home purchased more acreage adjacent to Long Creek Cemetery, which had its first recorded burial in 1855 and was certified from the Texas Historical Commission as a Historic Texas Cemetery. With this land acquisition, New Hope Funeral Home opened and dedicated New Hope Cemetery, also doing business as New Hope Memorial Gardens. Since 2004, New Hope offers complete funeral and memorial services, cremations, pre-arranged services as well as offering a Cemetery for both traditional burials, cremation burials and a cremation columbarium option. An experienced staff of highly skilled and compassionate funeral directors, funeral assistants and funeral ambassadors is available to help families during difficult times, as well as helping plan funerals in advance, or at the time of need. The original founders, the Ewing family, still own and manage New Hope and are proud of the fact that for over 18 years, New Hope is still locally owned rather than being managed by a large corporation.

FUNERAL PACKAGES

To help make planning the funeral easier, we have created packages that contain some of the most common options and prices that our families have chosen in the past for both burial and cremation. These packages include a significant discount off the regular price, provided you choose certain services and/or merchandise. You may upgrade any package by simply paying the difference. You may substitute similar items of equal or greater cost. However, you may NOT downgrade a package without forfeiting the discount. In order to receive the associated package discount, you must purchase your casket, alternative container, outer burial container and/or urn from our funeral home. Caskets, alternative containers, outer burial containers or urns purchased from a third-party will forfeit the discount. You are not obligated to choose one of these packages and may select individual options as you wish. If you choose a package, the total funeral contract must be paid in full before the service or cremation. If the contract is not paid in full before the service or cremation the discount will be forfeited.

OUR PAYMENT POLICY

Losing a loved one can be devastating and overwhelming. New Hope Funeral Home and its employees have no desire to add to your grief and mourning by creating a large financial burden. We are here to help you select how you want to celebrate your loved one as you feel appropriate, while being financially realistic and remaining within your budget. Therefore, we do not wish for you to spend more than you can afford. For your convenience, we accept the following forms of payment: cash, check, credit or debit card, insurance assignment of a verifiable life insurance policy*, payment by a forwarding or receiving funeral home or a pre-need or pre-paid funeral plan that is in good standing. The balance of the funeral contract should be secured before the date of the funeral service or cremation, unless other arrangements have been approved by New Hope Management.

**We have a fee of 5% of the total funeral contract for processing life insurance.*

PRE-PLANNING ASSISTANCE

New Hope Funeral Home provides complete pre-planning assistance. Pre-planning gives you the ability to purchase a funeral plan in advance of the death and lock in the prices for the goods and services provided by the funeral home. Any future price increases for selected items would not affect your loved ones at the time of your death, as long as the policy is in good standing. We will also honor on a case-by-case basis pre-arrangements from other funeral homes. If you are not prepared to financially secure your funeral plans, you can still provide us with biographical information to keep on file without any financial obligation.

MONUMENTS AND MARKERS

If you do not already have a monument or marker, we can assist you with designing a fitting permanent tribute. We have a number of examples on display on our grounds, and also brochures of many other examples. This can be done in advance of a death, at the time of death or at any later date.
